

Our sincere gratitude

We are proud to acknowledge the many contributions of the members of our Board of Trustees and the Aquinas Institute Foundation Board. Their time and leadership are essential to the continued growth and fiscal health of Aquinas.

2008-2009 Board of Trustees

The Aquinas Institute Board of Trustees has the responsibility of overseeing the operation of Aquinas Institute. The Board ensures and provides the spiritual tone and direction of Aquinas Institute consistent with the purposes and traditions of Roman Catholic education. The Board of Trustees also has final responsibility to direct and manage the business affairs of Aquinas Institute.

Mr. Michael R Nuccitelli, '80
Board Chair
Parlec

Theresa Conroy, Esq.
Board Vice Chair
Harter, Secrest & Emery LLP

Members:

Mrs. Sally Cardilli
Rochester City School District

Rev. Albert Cylwicki, CSB
St. John Fisher College

Mr. Michael R Daley, '79
President, Aquinas Institute

Mrs. Anne Gray, Ex Officio
Aquinas Parents' Association

Mr. Paul E Haney, '59
Monroe County

Rev. Leo A Hetzler, CSB, '43
St. John Fisher College

Mr. James J Leo, '67
Wegmans Food Markets, Inc.

Mrs. Molly McGowan, '90
Rochester Institute of Technology

Mr. Anthony J Monaco, '79
Rochester Colonial Mfg. Corp.

Mr. Wakili S Moore, '86
Rochester City School District

Mr. Gary D Moxley, '88
Rochester Police Department

Mr. Eugene Oberst, Ex Officio
Faculty, Aquinas Institute

Mr. Robert N Porretti, '64
Eldredge, Fox & Porretti LLP

Mr. Paul F Roland, '77
QCI Asset Management, Inc.

Mr. Dennis G Sadler, '62
Principal, Aquinas Institute

Mr. William G Shaheen, '72
Whitney & Company

Mr. Raymond Shea, '66
Monroe Community College

Rev. Norman Tanck, CSB, '62
Church of Christ the King

Ms. Jacqueline M Thomas, '85
Lacy, Katzen, Ryan & Mittleman

L-R: Board members Gary Moxley '88, Bob Porretti '64, Bill Shaheen '72 and Mike Nuccitelli '80 help out at a Board sponsored dinner for the employees of Aquinas.

The Aquinas Institute Foundation

The Aquinas Institute Foundation serves as a philanthropic resource for the Aquinas Institute of Rochester. Established in 2001 as a non-profit and tax-exempt organization, the Foundation's primary mission is to help preserve and enhance excellence in secondary education by providing private financial support for programs and activities that strengthen Aquinas Institute and build an endowment for the future.

2008-2009 Foundation Board

Paul Roland '77, Chair

Brian Cowan '75

Michael Daley '79

Christina Mancini '90, ex officio

Peter Noto '81

Robert Porretti '64