

Christina Mancini '90, CFRE is the Director of Alumni Relations and development at Aquinas. She joined AQ in 2005, after holding positions in alumni relations and development at University of Rochester, RIT, and Syracuse University. She holds a masters degree in Public Relations from the SI Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University and is an adjunct professor of communications at RIT.