

CITY OF ROCHESTER

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS: More than 17,000 men and women have shared in the Aquinas experience since its founding in 1902. For more than 100 years, Aquinas has served the Greater Rochester community as the only Catholic, co-educational high school located in the city of Rochester; and

WHEREAS: Aquinas students have excelled in academics, athletic competitions and extracurricular activities. The young men and women of Aquinas today form a rich tapestry of varying backgrounds, faiths and interests; and

WHEREAS: Many of Aquinas' alumni, located in all 50 states and throughout the world, join together annually for Alumni and Reunion Weekend, proudly proclaiming their Aquinas Spirit; and

WHEREAS: Aquinas alumni exhibit their commitment and loyalty through their attendance at events, donation of time, talent and service to our community. Their sense of spirit is truly immeasurable and we salute their continued dedication to school and community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert J. Duffy, Mayor of the City of Rochester, New York, do hereby proclaim September 21st, 2007 to be:

AQUINAS SPIRIT DAY

In Witness Whereof, I Have hereunto set my hand on this 21st day of September in the year 2007.

Signed:

Robert J. Duffy
Mayor, Rochester, New York